Narrow Escaps. — Yesterday after-noon a boy about eight years old while playing on a boat lying in the river not ar from Capt. Wilson's saw mill in the the 8th ward, fell overboard and would asve drowned but for the prompt setion of a man who chanced to be not far away. Without a moment's hesitation the man (we wish we knew his name) plunged nto the water and rescued the little fellow before he had disappeared the second time beneath the surface.

GETTING READY.—The furniture and fixtures in the old offices of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company in this city, were removed yesterday, preparatory to taking down the ricketty, ancient struc-ture which has been occupied, lo those many years, as the base of the company's operations in our midst. It looks now as if that great corporation would soon enter on the work of creeting a building at offers his very desirable residence for this point which will be a little more sale. The location of Mr. Williams' mocern in its architecture, and better property is among the best in the 7th arranged, internally, for the transaction Ward, and the house is arranged with of business and the comfort of its em-

PERSONALS.—Among the arrivals at the Grant House, yesterday, we noticed the name of Hon. W. I. Boreman, for many years Senator from the Clarksburg disrict in the Legislature.

Rev. J. L. Clark, at one time pastor of in June 1874. North St. M. E. church in this city, and subsequently Presiding Elder of this disrict, made us a pleasant call last evening.

A QUICK TRIP.—A year ago, all but about ten days, a certain lady sent her son to the grocer's in the morning for a peck of peas for dinner. Dinner time came, but neither the boy nor the peas. Diligent search was made but the unfaithful youth could nowhere be found, THE BEST CARE TAKEN A few days since the young man came value. My counters are all cheap. J. W. marching in with basket on his arm, say ing "Mother, here's your peas." The mother was glad to see the boy and with a true mother's feeling, forgave him his disobedience, thinking only of the joy at the prodigal's return. But when the "old man" came home in the evening he looked at the thing in a different light. The old gentleman called Solomon into another room from whence sounds soon issued that resembled the noise made by the paddle wheel of a Lawns, Paris, all and kinds of Summer steamboat. Cries could also be heard Goods. Please call soon if you wish to coming from that room, but the voice save money, at John Roemer's, Centre W.S. Mayer is prepared to the world was not that of the "old man." At the Wheeling. conclusion of the interview Solomon looked very humble and has not been seen to > LYNCH LAW IN WETZEL COUNTY,yesterday morning, on the Express, we learn that a party of men went to the house of a man named Jennings, living in Wetzel county, Tuesday night, and shot him. Jennings was instantly killed, and his wife seriously wounded in the afparty gave her notice to leave within ten street, days, and if found in that region after that period, she would meet the fate of her husband. It is alleged that the house of Jennings was the rendezvous of a gang of outlaws, who have been preying on that community for years. Jennings' sone, it is pretty well ascertained, belong to the band.

A correspondent in another column gives fuller details of this affair. An ar-ticle from the Moundsville Reporter also urnishes some additional particulars.

COUNTY COURT .- The following business was transacted in this Court at yesterday's sitting: Rev. A. L. Mayer, pastor of the Hebrew congregation in this city, was authorized to celebrate the rites of matrimony. In the case of J. L. Read & Son of W.

H. Morton, defendant filed a plea of non-assumpsit and set off, to which the plaintiffs replied generally. A jury being de-manded, the case was continued until the ext term.

Beuter Bros. es. Archie Woods-judgment entered for the plaintiffs for $32 66. W. C. Handlan, testamentary guardian of Elizabeth and Clara Ryan, children of the late John Ryan, gave bond in the penalty of $1,200 in each case, and took the rescribed oaths. Adjourned until 3 P. M. to-day.

THE FESTVAL LAST NIGHT.-The festival held in Washington Hall last night, by the ladies of Fourth Street M. E. Church, was largely attended and passed off delightfully. The floral display, as we predicted, was equal if not superior were served in great profusion. Visitors invested liberally, as the edibles were of the choicest, and the attendants at the were of our city's very fairest mount realized but doubt not the festival was a great financial success.

Picxics.-We started out, yesterday morning, to enumerate the picnic parties going to the country, but after getting our schools and little private companies sought the shade and pure air, we den't know exactly, but we do know that the picnickers we saw returning in the even-ing looked as if they had made a day of it. They walked as if they were fatigued, but their faces were lighted up with smiles.
